

Introducing the Improving Teacher Programme at Brooke Weston

The Brooke Weston Teaching School is offering a tried and tested programme for teachers who are currently attaining satisfactory judgements but who want to progress to good. It is delivered by outstanding facilitators and the programme consistently delivers measurable results. Feedback indicates that delegates return to their classroom empowered and with the confidence, knowledge and practical tools to make a sustained and positive impact on their professional practice leading to more positive outcomes.

Feedback:

'A big thank you! It has been such a valuable and worthwhile experience – a real treat. I will miss everyone and am excited about using many of the new ideas.'

'Thank you for helping me develop and guiding me through this fantastic journey. It has supported my confidence, developed my teaching strategies, helped me create new resources, try new techniques and it was a chance to listen to experienced professionals.'

'It has built my confidence and showed me that a lot of styles that I already use are good but that I can tweak them and move them forwards. It has given me lots of new ideas to try.'

'The programme has made me far more able to problem solve effectively and made me achieve in 'bite-size' chunks. I cannot over-emphasise how the course has helped me remember me as a teacher, rather than a teacher on a hamster wheel!'
